

Oxendon House Newsletter December 2019

We have had a wonderful start to December here at Oxendon House! With some truly amazing entertainment. First of all we had the superb Nice and Easy come in and do a festive rat pack performance, and we were then spoiled by the supremely talented Julia Shailes, who treated us to a broad variety of songs!

On December 22nd we will be having our Christmas get together, and hope to see as many faces as possible between the hours of 14.00 and 16.00!

Nice and Easy!

Nice and Easy made a surprise appearance last week, much to the delight of all of our residents! There was signing, dancing and clapping along to a plethora of rat pack hits, given a seasonal twist!

Elf Day!

We celebrated Elf Day on the 6th of December, and the staff really got into the spirit! Julia graced us with a wonderful performance! All of the residents responded VERY positively, potentially the best received that we have ever had, so we can expect much more!

Coming up...

Looking into January we have lots of new activities planned, you can expect to see plenty of performers coming in, as well as the usual fun and games! Lots of brain training and few new surprises! Please watch the Facebook page for further updates
